WEARING NAMETAGS

Lisa Burdette, Chair of the Membership Mission encourages everyone to wear their nametags for worship. Every Sunday during Lent our young people will be in the narthex sharing name tags with all members. If you don't have a nametag please share your name with one of our young people and Steve Pasky will be contacted to make new nametags. Also, the young people will help our visitors with their guest nametags. During worship, we will greet each other and put names with faces. This should be a blessing of hospitality for our church family.
