Pearl of Wisdom

Many congregations find that they have to recruit people for acts of service. No telling how much time is wasted trying to figure out who might be the right person for the job. No telling how much more we could accomplish if we weren't waiting to be asked.

If you're like many folks, you've heard your mother say "I've asked you a thousand times." Maybe she was talking about cleaning your room, not drinking milk directly from the carton or leaving your bike on the driveway. Regardless, at some point you stopped hearing her.

How would things have been if just once you did what she wanted without her having to ask? Chances are, you would have both been much happier. This week's messages in Treasures of the Transformed Life were devoted to service. So, this morning ask yourself this question "Is there any place God has nudged me to serve that I have not yet tried?"

If so, what are you waiting for? Someone else to ask you? Do yourself a favor: volunteer. The person on the receiving end will likely be as happy as your mother the day that she saw your bike put away in the garage.
